

Summer Reading Challenge

Happy Summer! I have an offer for you! If you read seven books from my list, and write me two sentences about each book and turn it in, you will be invited to an ice cream party at the school! I hope you will come join me for ice cream-you have until August 1st to turn it in your list. (Mom or Dad can email me a picture.) All of these books must be chapter books. See you in the fall!
